INTRO

(Intro wave 1)

We invite you to participate in a scientific study that is being carried out in various countries around the world on how people like you perceive the coronavirus crisis and what they think about the consequences it has on themselves, their loved ones and for our society at large. You have been randomly selected to be part of a representative sample of people living in this country. Their participation is really essential for the validity of this study. The interview lasts no more than twenty minutes; we are very grateful for your participation.

(Intro wave 2 - 3)

Greetings again!

We are contacting you to carry out the second wave of the Values in Crisis Study. As you may recall, this is a study on the perception of the coronavirus crisis, and we need you to answer it for yourself. Your participation is really essential for us as this will help to analyse the evolution of public opinion throughout the pandemic. The interview lasts no more than 20 minutes. Thank you very much for your participation in the two waves of the study!

This study is designed to be answered, preferably through a computer or tablet. It can also be answered from a mobile phone. However, depending on the size of the screen, you may not be able to easily see the integrity of a question.
